Foreign Language Instruction

We quite often get inquiries regarding language tutoring from people who wish to sponsor their Russian Girlfriend or Fiancee in learning the foreign language. This has prompted us to start offering foreign language instruction services.

Our classes are taught by experienced teachers of the English language who will make sure that your fiancee truly feels at home in her new country and is able to speak without difficulty.

Private Tutoring is an individually customized program with a flexible schedule for every particular student. We begin by carefully testing her level of knowledge and then proceed at her individual pace and manner.

Our classes cover not only the necessary conversational basics, grammar, and vocabulary, but also educate her about the culture, cultural differences she might encounter, and ways to overcome those to cope with the new environment and lifestyle.
